

Robert Frank Moxley was the second of five children born to Lloyd and Mary Moxley. He is survived by all of his siblings, Betty (Haddock), Mervin, Howard and Carol-Lynn (Beck). Bob described his childhood as peaceful with summers that seemed endless. He loved cars and horses and was proud of his parents and his home.

When asked what his line of work was, Bob would say, "Name something, I've probably done it". From Dairy Foreman to Asphalt Paving Specialist to LDS Book Salesman, Bob did it all. But his favourite job was as Orchardist for the Church orchard in Kelowna. He loved the farm, the good earth and growing things.

Bob and his first wife, Lucille, had five children and twins that died in childbirth. He is predeceased by his daughter Janice (Baff), the oldest, and survived by his children Gordon, Robert, Esther (Leighton) and Angela (Hunter). He then married Helen and had three more children, Jennifer, Mary and Richard. Helen had two of her own to fill up their new family with Sheri (Nasser, predeceased) and Steven.

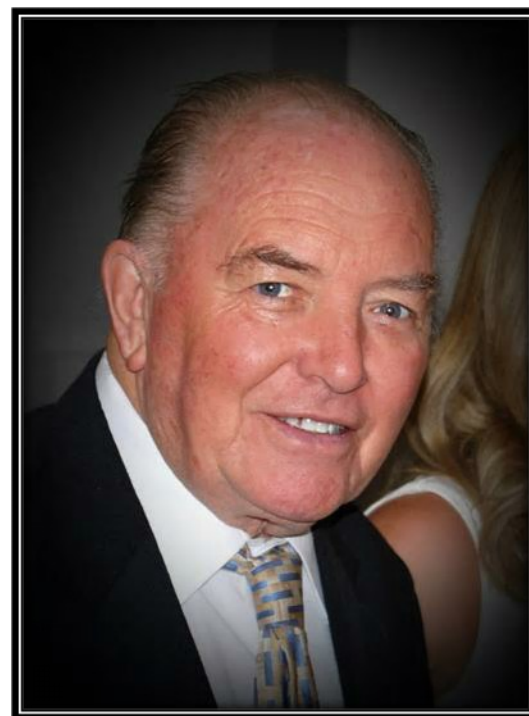

Faith was an important part of Bob's life. He grew up in the Anglican Church and joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and loved to share its message of hope with his friends and family. Remembered for his wit and humour, Bob was a cherished friend to many. He once said, "I've always thought the word "friend" is an interesting one. If you're going to be a friend you should be one from beginning to END".

Bob was surrounded by his loved ones until the very end. We're hoping there's some homemade macaroni and cheese awaiting him, because he often said, "If they don't have macaroni and cheese in Heaven, I don't want to go!"

Bob is survived by his siblings Betty (Fred Haddock), Mervin (Terry), Howard (Gloria), Carol-Lynn (Scott Beck) and his second wife Helen (Carter). He is also survived by his children; Gordon Moxley (Marie), Rob Moxley (Dawn), Esther Leighton (Jack), Angela Hunter (Grant), Steven Moxley (Brenda), Jenn Fowler (Chad), Mary Tilleman (William) and Richard Moxley (Jessilyn). He is also survived by his 39 grand-children; Olasha (Taylor), Anica, Alexandria and Levin (Baff); Jared, Brandon and Tyler (Gord Moxley); Clayton, Serena, Dallin, Benjamin and Alanna (Robert Moxley); Christopher, Jessica (Daniel Youngerman), Caleb and Ellandra (Leighton); Brittany (Leland Stanford), Truman, Hayley (Andrew Wickern), Savannah and Justus (Hunter); Steve (Vanessa Timms); Braeden (Nasser); Liam and Emma (Steve Moxley); Carson, Rachel and Cayley (Fowler); Lucy, Isaac, Heidi, William IV, Thomas and Portia (Tilleman); Ben, Ellie, Addy, Josh and Charlie (Richard Moxley). He is also survived by 3 great-grandchildren; Gideon, Merida and Reuven (Brittany and Leland Stanford). Bob is predeceased by his first wife Lucille (Rudski), third wife Rolande (Hebert), daughter Janice Baff (Frank) and Shari Nasser (Nabeil).

Let Us Remember and Always Keep in Our Hearts

A Place for Our Dear Brother and Loving Father Robert (Bob) Frank Moxley

3rd September 1938 - 12th July 2020

Come, Come, Ye Saints

Come, come, ye saints, no toil or labor fear;
But with joy wend your way.
Though hard to you this journey may appear,
Grace shall be as your day.
'Tis better far for us to strive
Our useless cares from us to drive;
Do this, and joy your hearts will swell-
All is well! All is well!

Why should we mourn or think our life is hard?
'Tis not so; all is right.
Why should we think to earn a great reward
If we now shun the fight?
Gird up your loins; fresh courage take.
Our God will never us forsake;
And soon we'll have this tale to tell-
All is well! All is well!

We'll find the place that God for us prepared,
Far away in the West,
Where none shall come to hurt or make afraid;
There the Saints will be blessed.
We will make the air with music ring,
Shout praises to our God and King;
Above the rest these words we'll tell-
All is well! All is well!

And should we die before our journey's through,
Happy day! All is well!
We then are free from toil and sorrow, too,
With the just we will dwell!
But if our lives are spared again
To see the Saints their rest obtain,
Oh, how we'll make this chorus swell-
All is well! All is well!
