

Letter:

To our daddy-

Clay Plume is our daddy, forever and always. He was the best daddy. He always greeted us with the biggest smile, arms wide open, and a loud "MY GIRLS!!" We were daddy's girls since the day we were born. Fallyn came first on June 19, 2012. I was born looking just like my daddy—same nose, hair, lips...basically everything. Hayden came next on December 9, 2013. I have my daddy's eyes to a T, his loud voice and sense of humor, I make people laugh just like he did.

Our Daddy was our protector, He always made sure we had everything we needed, that we were comfortable, and happy. He made us laugh with his booming laugh, he was always playing with us no matter where we were, he showed us new things when we were outside and he always treated us to candy, slurpees, popcorn and chips. He taught both of us how to ride horses. He was the BEST teacher ever. Our best memories will be daddy taking us down to the barn to feed the horses, saddle up to ride, or just mess around. Hayden was so excited to make daddy proud when she started getting brave enough to ride. Fallyn made daddy so proud when she galloped by herself, daddy didn't have to hold the reins but he was right there in case anything happened shouting "go Fallyn go, go Fallyn go!" If there's any way to make sense of this, it's this -daddy may not be here holding the reins for us anymore, but he will always be in our hearts - watching us, protecting us, leading us and making sure life brings us everything we need. We'll always be daddy's little cowgirls.

We love you forever and always,

Fallyn and Hayden

Poem:

Our Daddy-

You are brave,

You are our hero,

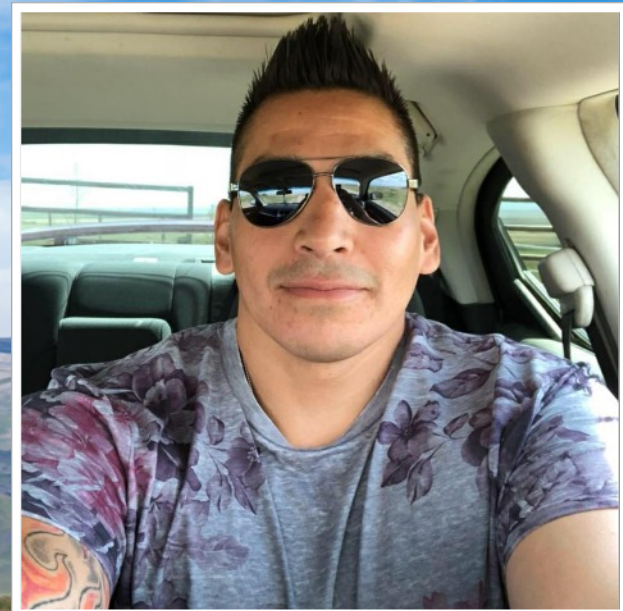

You were so kind and caring,

You were funny,

We love you Daddy.

-Fallyn and Hayden-

In Loving Memory of

Clay Plume
